TOURIST INFORMATION

MERIDA THE WHITE CITY

Merida is the economic and cultural capital of southeast Mexico. It is a cosmopolitan destination, designated in 2019 as a UNESCO Creative City of Gastronomy.

It is less than 50 km from the Gulf of Mexico, on the northeastern part of the state of Yucatan. It borders with Quintana Roo to the east, with Campeche to the west, and with the Gulf of Mexico to the north.

It is notable for its sober, colonial architecture, where buildings with high ceilings and large windows stand out; but above all, it is known for the color of the quarry stone, a typical material of the region used to erect many of its buildings, giving it an appearance leading to the nickname of Ciudad Blanca (the White City).

Among its main attractions, the San Ildefonso Cathedral, the Montejo House, the José Peón Contreras, the San Juan Arch, and the Paseo Montejo, stand out.

The state Government of Yucatan offers useful tourist information on its website, as well as experiences for your visit to Merida. The Municipal Government also offers information about the city.
